

Celebrating Labor Day

Many GOP solons brag about their union membership before catching gravy train. So they're anti-labor presently, which followers see as wising up, but merely involves changing another coat.